

Madison West Interiors set to design Celebrity Gift Suites

The Laguna Beach-based interior design firm's principal designer, Sabrina Vavra, will design the suites produced by DPA.

BY KRISTEN SCHOTT

Published: August 19, 2008 01:13 PM

The 2008 Pre-Awards Celebrity Gift Suites, created to coincide with The Emmys next month, will be at the Luxe Hotel in Beverly Hills. Vavra was chosen by Nathalie Dubois-Sissoko, president of DPA Productions, because of her cutting-edge design techniques.

Madison West Interiors, with help from art pieces by James Verbicky – now showing at the Louvre – and furniture by Plush Impressions and Caluco. Vavra's rooftop suites will hold three separate bar areas, a celebrity lounge and a red-carpet-ready space. The suites will display luxury items and premier products from the world over: Tahitian vacations, jewelry and spas are just a few of the selections in the mix.

The pre-Emmy event will begin Sept. 18, and only the best of the best celebrities will be in attendance. Vavra's designs will be specifically for high-end lifestyles.

